BEATING NAZIS

Tooth for a tooth, eye for an eye!

Resistance Records takes some direct hits

In the twisted world of neoNazis, Resistance Records has a special place. It's a major producer and distributor of that garbage known as racist rock, today's soundtrack for genocide.

Founded by George Burdi, a.k.a the Reverend George Eric Hawthorne, Resistance is based in Detroit and Windsor.

Anti-racist youth have been at the forefront of fucking up Resistance's distribution. Last fall, the new ARA in Houston, Texas, organized a successful campaign to get Resistance out of local record stores. In Resistance's hometown, ARA Detroit put the screws on Mr. Musichead to "encourage" them to dump Resistance. Even closer to home, Sloth Records attracted the attention of anti-fascists from all over Ontario, including the Punx Against Profits crew in Burlington, and ARA Niagara. After being exposed to the broader community, the owner agreed to pull the product off the shelves.

In all these places, nazi boneheads are back to buying this crap out of the trunks of cars. But the worst was yet to come.

First, on Feb. 14 George packed his bags for the provincial joint outside Ottawa. He's doing a one-year bit for a cowardly attack on an anti-racist during the fascist riot in Ottawa in May 1993, following a nazi concert there.

Only a few weeks later, on April 9, cops staged co-ordinated raids on houses infested by Resistance scum in Detroit and Windsor, including Jason Snow and Eric Davidson a.k.a. "Wolf". While the boyz in the hoods cried ZOG, the cops helped themselves to tens of thousands of CDs, on top of all of their financial records and mailing lists. Preparing for the race war doesn't look like so much fun after all, eh George?

In the U.S.A., the feds were interested in — you guessed it — taxes. On the other side of the border, OPP warrants cited "conspiracy to commit genocide". As we go to press, there have been no charges laid, and anti-racists will be watching to see whether the cops are really going to throw the book at these guys, or if they just wanted some free CDs.

Soon after the raids, the racist rock scene was hit with another fiasco. Buffalo, New York, was supposed to host a Hitler's birthday celebration on April 19 and 20th. Resistance, the Buffalo bonehead band No Alibi and the Buffalo Area Skinheads (BASH), expected 1,000 fans and promised a light show worthy of Nuremburg (where Hitler held his most famous rally).

Luckily, the new Buffalo ARA swung into action right away. Connections in the local music scene, networking with other ARA groups, and a few well-placed rats (!) helped Buffalo ARA folks uncover not only the fascists' rendezvous point but the actual location of the ill-fated fascist fest too. Buffalo ARA went public and soon community people, mainstream anti-racist groups, and music promoters too were calling the club to promise a boycott if the concert went on. Some city councillors even threatened to yank the club's liquor license. There was lots of media coverage.

Within a day, the show was canned. All Saturday night, the concert's organizers who were stuck giving refunds and playing referee for their sloshed kamerads at the local Econo-lodge.

Meanwhile, the show planned by ARA for the same night went on without a hitch; it was a total celebration for ARA Buffalo and their many friends. (Too bad the Buffalo International Socialist Organization didn't feel the same way. They were so excited about demonstrating against a nazi concert that they cut out of the ARA concert early, to picket the desolate Showplace Theatre. Now, ARA tries not to slag other anti-racist initiatives, no matter how empty-headed they are, but in this case we really have to laugh. They would have had a lot more fun if they'd stayed at the concert!)

The bones tried to save face and held a pathetic gig the next night over at the B&V Lounge. On top of the acts already scheduled (Bound for Glory, Aggravated Assault, No Alibi, Blue Eyed Devils, and Aryan) the Excessive Force crew drove all the way from Brampton for the "big" event. Concert of the decade? NOT! Their trip was all for nothing — the show ended early when the bones started fighting amongst themselves. Even the bar owner, who was sympathetic to these losers, ended up getting knocked unconscious. Just goes to show ya — if you let these meatheads into your bar, you're going to get fucked one way or the other!

All in all, the racist rock scene sure wasn't Bound for Glory this year... more like Bound for Disaster. Cheers to Buffalo ARA!

Toronto boneheads emerge from under their rocks

On Friday, March 21, 30 or so boneheads mostly from Scarborough and Durham region marched down Yonge St., from Wellesley to Old City Hall. A police cruiser protected them as they seig heiled and taunted passersby, protesting the International Day for the Elimination of Racism and Apartheid.

A week later, some of the same losers were attending the trial of a young man who pleaded guilty to stabbing and killing their friend Michael Amann-Ewaschuk, a 15-year-old with nazi affiliations. Amann has become a martyr for white supremacists. Resistance magazine ran a memorial for him, and Nazis wear a patch with his name. At the courthouse, his friends got into a little rumble with reporters — one of them, Ryan Marshall, was prominent in the Yonge Street march, carrying a confederate flag!

But this was all covered up in the media, and Amann instead became a martyr to "youth violence". Despite knowing all about his nazi affiliations, his parents set up the "Stop the Madness" campaign in Mike's name, with the backing of the Metro Police "Hate Crime" Unit. The Toronto Sun's Christie Blatchford even described him as "a nice boy from a nice family".

You gotta wonder about those darn white kids. Nazi or not, somehow they're always the "tragic victims".

Nazi prison logs...

- Big daddy Ernst Zundel will be facing the Canadian Human Rights Commission over his website on May 26...
- Even Wolfgang Droege's kamerads are embarrassed about his latest bust. Wolfie was picked up on March 10 for possession of a stolen car, along with a South Asian man. Cops were acting on a tip and say they were both involved in a scheme to smuggle cars into Czechoslovakia...
- "Viking" (Chris Newhook) is back in the dink again, sentenced to three years for attacking some young anti-racists in Sarnia. He quickly pleaded guilty to get the hell away from the hordes of skater kids who were looking to pound him if he showed his face on the street. His racial comrades Andrew Ward and Wayne Xilon will be sentenced soon...
- Oshawa fascists Guy Carleton Mayne and Ted Francis Beavis have been charged with distributing hate propaganda — mostly NSDP/AO stickers and flyers. Cops promised Beavis a deal if he rattled on the other buttheads and it looks like he went for it; his windows have been broken so many times he's put boards up instead!

Fromm's cover blown!

On February 26, 1997, the Peel Board of Education at last had the spine to kick out Paul "fart" Fromm, nazi-fuck, from classrooms in Peel Region schools. We commend them for withstanding the pressure of "respectable" fascists, however it should be noted that this decision was long overdue. ARA intimately remembers taking to the streets in 1992 to support the campaign initiated by the Native Canadian Centre to oust him. At that time, after a lengthy investigation, the Peel Board made a half-assed decision to remove him from Applewood High in Mississauga but let him teach "English as the only language" to adult students.

(For info. about Paul's politics and activities, check out ARA's pamphlet "Nazis in Suits" - details on back page).

The latest twist in his teaching contract came after the intervention of B'nai Brith, the Canadian Anti-Racism Education and Research Society (CAERS) and the Salmon Arm Coalition Against Racism. Paul flew in the "best" nazi-lawyer from Victoria, Doug "the Dickhead" Christie, to defend him. They both tried unsuccessfully to put the blame for everything on ARA, but this time the Peel Board members had the guts to keep their heads straight and remember who was on trial. Fromm is out - no more white trash supremacist farts in schools again for some time!

A victory for sure, another big-time bigot can't spoil students in schools. But "respectable" anti-racist leaders are too quick to declare TOTAL VICTORY. Now Paul "the Fart" has time on his hands to roam around the continent rallying troops for his fucked up quasi-fascist politics. He could emerge as a figure uniting scattered white supremacists in Canada.

Before the ink had even dried on Paul's termination letter, he flew out to Vancouver on February 28th to address his supporters and claim martyrdom. But even on short notice, Vancouver antifas were ready with a "welcoming party" at the Croation Cultural Center on Commercial Drive. They monkeywrenched his smooth plans and fucked up Fromm's meeting. Nice one...Paul even got dragged down to the parking lot and strip-searched!

There are reports coming to our desks that he was in Victoria, Salmon Arm and Fredericton during March and April. Remember...a nazi is a nazi, and the only good nazi is a dead nazi. Paul "the Fart" can no longer cover his ass behind his empty, hypocritical calls for "freedom of expression." Those days are gone - even his ex-employer calls him a fash! Now it's up to militant antifas around the country to deny this man any space wherever his mug shows up. From now on...Paul belongs in the pavement.

Since it's election time and all, we thought we'd help Presto... Manure! out with a campaign speech, sure to deliver the Reform (Return to the good 'ole days) Party's true message:

"We aren't racists, just bigots. We believe in equality. The white way is the right way... for everybody. We promise to make that the law!

"To continue on this equality thing, we even accept lesbians and gay men, that is, so long as you're hidden so deep in the closet, so mired in self-loathing that you THINK and ACT good 'ole Christian family values straight... why just look at Debbie Grey, the butchest dyke Klanada... uh, Canada's legislature has ever seen!

"Yup, equality Reform style... it don't matter who you are, so long as you look, think, act, and talk white. Once more... the white way is the right way!"

Lock Zundel in.... burn the bunker down!

ARA marshalls on the lookout for bad cops on the loose...

On your mark...

Less Talk...

On October 25 last year, the entire city of Toronto came to a standstill when big labour unions declared a "Day of Action" against the right-wing Tory government, headed by that king of all the assholes Mike Harris. There wasn't any business as usual. Working people effectively shut down Toronto, with a number of picket lines and demonstrations all over the city.

As an antifa group, ARA decided to target Ernst Zundel, one of the biggest nazi propagandists in the world, whose bunker/business is located on 206 Carlton Street. Our slogan: no business as usual for a nazi!

From 8.30am to 4.30pm, an enthusiastic flock of youth anti-fascists maintained a picket outside the bunker. Many people, including local politicians, dropped by and gave support, helping us to disrupt Zundel's activities for the entire day. To really get under the pasty skin of this nasty anti-semitic, we openly held a Kosher barbecue outside his bunker to treat the picketers and supportive neighbours. We hope that continuous community pressure will mount against Zundel in the coming days and that ARA will play an important role in ejecting him from this multi-cultural neighbourhood.

To get an idea of how the cops responded to our action against Zundel, check out page 9!

Saturday, October 26 will go down in history as the biggest labour and community march ever in Canada. About 350,000 people took part in the anti-Harris March. Even though we had second thoughts about the lameness of some so-called labour leaders, we were determined to claim our rightful place as militant youth in the progressive political milieu in Toronto. We openly called for a creative anti-racist youth block - fondly referred to as the "black block". The ARA crew brought a sea of black flags and tons of no-nonsense attitude.

However... it's fair to say that we all went home that night with frustration at not being able to take a direct hit at the Harris stooges. We hope the so-called leaders of the Metro Days of Action won't waste time for "big shows" in the future, but instead create an environment for poor people to vent their anger, which should mark permanent scars in Harris' face!

Go!!!

...More Action!

Metro KKKops have been on a killing spree, shooting seven Black and Brown men since the beginning of 1996. The response from the community hasn't been strong enough to stop these fuckers from gunning down whomever they please.

But some fresh energy came into the movement against racist policing when the Canadian Union of Public Employees (CUPE) was planning their very first national anti-racist conference. Two CUPE members have lost sons to racist police and prison guards. The union called community groups in the city to organize an ad-hoc coalition to protest racist police in Toronto.

From the very beginning, ARA decided to be a part of this important formation. Our history of solidarity with other anti-racist groups like the Black Action Defense Committee (BADC) was good ground work for us to take a leading role in the city-wide coalition. ARA took part in every practical aspect of building the demonstration.

On February 1st, the Unite & Fight demo brought more than 500 people to the streets and it was a big boost for community activists to revitalize their ongoing work. A community gathering followed, and a new coalition against racist police violence was underway. At the very first meeting, ARA proposed the formation of an Emergency Response Network (ERN) to publicly respond to the most serious cases of police brutality.

Two days later, on February 20, a Toronto cop shot and killed an unarmed Chinese man, on an empty bus. The ERN was called and within a week, we helped to organize a militant public demo to respond to this murder.

In this developing coalition, ARA is enthusiastically working with some of the finest anti-racist activists in the city. As a youth group we have a lot to learn from them, and at the same time it is encouraging to see that space is open for a group like ARA to express our activism in creative ways.

KKKop guilty... and a liar!!!

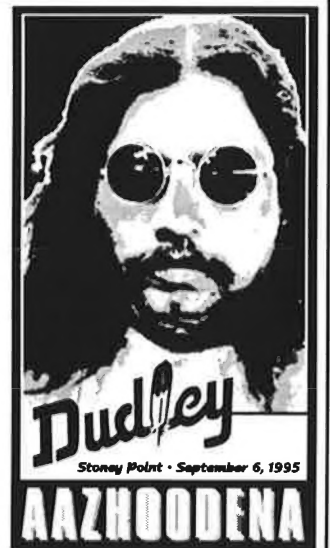

On April 28, Acting OPP Sergeant Kenneth Deane was found guilty of criminal negligence in the shooting death of Anthony O'Brien "Dudley" George, who was murdered while defending traditional Aazhoodena (Stoney Point) Territory in September 1995 (see page 10 for more info).

Not only is Deane guilty, Judge Hugh Fraser found that Deane was lying in court, stating that Deane had, "concocted a story... in an ill-fated attempt to disguise the fact that an unarmed man was shot... [Deane was] not honest in [his] statements to police investigators, to the SIU and to this court." Deane will be sentenced on May 27. Deane's conviction is only one small step towards justice for Dudley. He gave his life for self-determination for Stoney Point, which is STILL not recognized by the federal government!

Remember Dudley George!

ARA is helping to distribute a t-shirt with this image to raise $ for the Dudley George Memorial Fund. Dudley took this picture of himself on his brother Pierre's camera before he was killed. There is a short poem written by Pierre on the back of the T.

T-shirts, in army green, black & dark blue (M-XXXL) are $20. Make cheques out to the Dudley George Memorial Fund, and include $1 for postage.

Last fall during the Metro Days of Action, Rock Against Racism and Raw Energy Records teamed up to bring Toronto "Rock Against Harris".

Four different bands, each with their distinct energy and style, came together to tell Harris government to fuck off and stop attacking the poor to enrich the corporate parasites! Dropdeadbeats is an all-women outfit with a funky rhythm and smart-ass lyrics. Los Cholos is a heavy-duty metal band with an insane edge. Random Killing and Politikill InCORrect are both punk rock icons in the city and we were really glad to do a show with them.

Lots of snow didn't stop hundreds of fans from coming out to Ska, Ska, Oi! at the Elmo. The show opened with the Smokers from Sudbury: after this very respectable Toronto debut, everyone will be watching these talented young guys who play traditional styles and obviously love their horns.

The voice of Oi! followed with Windsor's Lager Lads. Their "Rose City Boot Boys" 7" sold out, and friends who heard it for the first time were very impressed and definitely recommend it.

Next was Too Hectic, who travelled from Syracuse, NY, to share their supremely danceable rhythms. Reeeally nice guys and high quality CD.

The show closed with Toronto's Arsenals, who played one of their best gigs ever, at least according to this reviewer. They worked hard to wreak havoc, leaving many fans in the crowd screaming with delight, dripping with sweat and water thrown on them from the stage.

The mood of the night was UNITY, as skaters, punks, skins, rudies and miscellaneous ARA supporters from all over the city came together to hear some kick-ass bands and support the anti-racist cause. Watch out for all these bands!

JANUARY 10
EL MOCAMBO

Rock Against Racism's next project was a benefit concert for the Stoney Point Legal Fund. The Stoney Point people are in a battle with the Canadian government to regain their traditional territories near Sarnia.

First Nations actor and musician Gloria Eshkibok MC'd the concert, which opened with acoustic sets from Derek Miller, Keith Julian, and David Deleary (formerly of Seventh Fire).

Next came Project 9, which played many tunes from their CD "Unikunstmusika" and satisfied their many fans who came out to support the cause.

Headlining was the popular Rusty, a band that doesn't forget its roots in the "alternative" music scenes, even while they're getting more mainstream exposure. They took the gig very seriously and really encouraged their fans to check out all the info about Stoney Point available at the concert, with unforgettable lines like: "Do something... or you'll be just as bad as your folks!".

Much thanks to the other groups who helped promote the show: the Toronto Coalition Against Racism, Leonard Peltier Defence Committee, Friends of the Lubicon, Prison News Service, Anti-Colonial Action Alliance, and Canadian Alliance in Solidarity with Native People.

A SHORT HISTORY OF SKA MUSIC

Ska originated in Jamaica during the early sixties, practiced by such ska legends as The Skatalites, Desmond Dekker, Prince Buster and Laurel Aitken (amongst many, many others, including a young Bob Marley). Ska later gave birth to rocksteady and reggae music. Ska is similar too and influenced by North American Black music of the times, like R&B, swing and early rock.

Ska travelled to the UK with Jamaican immigrants and was revived in England in the late '70s by such 2-Tone acts as the Specials, Madness, The Selecter, The (English) Beat, and Bad Manners, who all revved up the speed and added a punky, rock approach to the music. The Two-Tone craze was pretty much over in England by the time Americans even noticed it, but ska began to take root in the mid-80s with such US acts as Fishbone, the Untouchables, and The Toasters leading the fray. Moon Ska Records out of NYC was releasing albums when no one else even had a clue; more recently Stomp Records in Montreal has been promoting Canadian bands. Toronto is home to one of North America's finest ska bands, the Arsenals... don't miss their live show! Whether they're playing in a big hall or a tiny bar, they get everyone off their feet.

RACISM

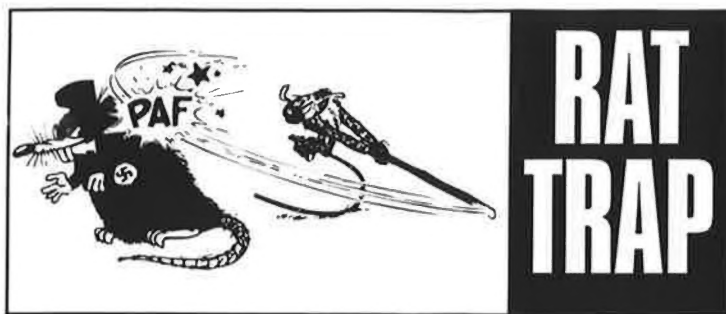

Yo punk fans! Check out these bands!

Spazmz and Repeat Offender are both excellent Toronto bands, among the many that have played ARA shows and helped make the downtown scene practically nazi-free.

You can get the Spazmz 7" from P.O. Box 67725, RPO Spadina West, Toronto, ON M5T 3B8. Unfortunately, Repeat Offender has folded... but you can still get copies of their split 7" with MDC from P.O. Box #156, 689 Queen Street West, Toronto, ON M6J 1C1.

Also worth checking is the demo tape from PMS (that's Poor Motivational Syndrome), available at fine alternative record stores... They've also got a cut on the new Raw Energy compilation.

This is the man behind enemy lines reporting to ya about some music you may like - honey to your ears!

Awhile back I noticed this burly guy who was pacing the streets and asking a lot of questions about Resistance Records and stuff. First I thought that he was a danger to my real kin (on your side), and figured I'd collect some dirt on him and warn ya'll. Well, not to worry. He's not here looking for your blood. He's on a mission from Blood & Honour from England, sent to restore some honour by spilling some blood among the white power music moguls in North America! If you notice the bugger, just ignore him. Let him do his eternal duty of taking some shots at his own ilk and then getting the fuck out (all according to plan).

I am talking about George Burdi a.k.a. Hawthorne Hah! Some pride this guy's got - his name sounded a little too "ethnic" so he got himself a new one. But these days he's better known in the scene as "Whorethorne". Some of the big boys who control the lucrative white power music industry consider him to be a traitor to the "cause" for selling out to the mainstream.

George used to be 2nd in command of the Heritage Front, and the Canadian leader of the now defunct Church of the Creator. He founded the not-so-rocking band named Rahowa. Once I happened to be in Detroit for a COTC meeting in 1992, when Rahowa did a short set with acoustic guitars and shit. I wondered why so many people went to take the piss break when they took the stage... Holy cow, it was like firing tear-gas into a crowded small room. They were sooo bad... it was like swallowing a sickle - I couldn't puke, I couldn't shit!

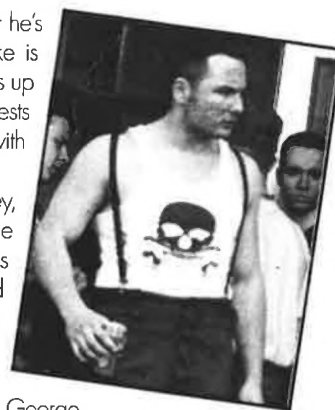

After getting busted for a brawl with anti-fascists in 1993, George realized that the racial holy war is a joke. He got some of his old buddies to start up the money-making venture called Resistance Records.

The fucker moved to Windsor, while Resistance operated from Detroit across the river. He signed a few more nazi bands to the project.

George always thought that he's larger than life. Sure he is... due to steady dose of steroids! But we knew all along that he's a poser. He preaches that beer and smoke is bad for the white man's health, 'cause it fucks up the pro-creation system. Close scrutiny suggests that's all cock-shit. Here you go, the man with beer, and puff.

I asked Tracey Jones, his former honey, about that pro-creation stuff, and she told me Whorethorne never had a problem with his erection - as long as he was drunk and smoked up! Her only complaint was that as soon as their white revolutionary offspring was born, George "$$$"Burd split!

These days George is doing his daily push-ups in a clink near Ottawa, after the appeal court in Ottawa upheld his conviction for the brawl in 1993. You can write him at George Burdi, Dorm 6, O.C.R.D.C., 2244 Innes Road, Gloucester, On. N1B 4C4. But one thing I want to ask you guys - please don't send the fucker dead animals. What I hear is that the poor guy gets up and starts his daily wanking session at 3am, and thinking about his novel he plans to write. Don't disturb his fantasies.

So, there's a hit out on his brain by Blood and Honour, and a jail term. Meanwhile, his buddies fucked up big time the moment he withdrew to the Pen (check out page 2 for more).

Legal advice from Les Hulka (that loser lawyer from Windsor, Resistance's Barrister and Solicitor) is not going to save his ass this time. George didn't know that his destiny was being carved out from the inside by his own mate, Eric Davidson a.k.a. "Wolf". A wolf in sheep clothing! The motherfucker is the general manager of Resistance Records, but his name never showed up on the company's registration papers. Well, some of his former mates know him as a jealous guy, and didn't much like getting left out like that. So guess who tipped off the feds, that Burdi's buddies Jason Snow (a.k.a. Lewis) and former York University grad Joseph Talic, were working in the US without the proper papers? You know one thing... when you give a hand to the feds, they shake it, and then bite your whole arm off. So now Resistance is totally fucked.

Cheers to ARA lads in Buffalo! Only thing I can add to the story is that it's only a matter of time before Chris Gawlick and the rest of No Alibi find out that it was the "big mouths" in the Durham Region bone-head scene that were behind the whole fuck-up. It's no surprise if Adolf Hitler wakes up from his grave to punish these little pinheads in Pickering who screwed up the "big show" in his memory. I don't know what to say...Valhalla or Bust...who gives a shit for a fascist.

Got to go.... lots more next time, if I'm still alive!

Then...

To my fave "rat boy" from the Prairie: You lazy fuck... so you finally found some time to write some shit for this rag while couch-tripping among the Vikings! Any dirt from your trip out East? Keep it going bro....

Dan Sims, Alberta's nazi poster boy, was released from prison for "good behavior." Fittingly, he walked out of the Edmonton Remand Centre last year. Has Danny boy seen the error of his ways and been reformed by our stellar "correctional" system? Of course not! The first thing Dan did, after applying for welfare and courting Adriana "Aryana" Dan (a.k.a. Adriana Lozinski, the spoiled little rich girl who likes to spend daddy's money on racist patches to wear to high school) was to start "recruiting" for the "revival." You could find Dan at a number of local bars, sporting various racist patches on his flight jacket (including a homemade B.H.O.R.P. patch - guess he got lots of sewing practice in the pen mending his sugar daddy's socks), talking to any big guy he thought would make a good bonehead bruiser. If you don't know who Dan was, he'd be more than happy to whip out his ever-present copy of WEB OF HATE and point out relevant passages.

But Dan's "master plan" hasn't been going well. After a few months, the only people he has managed to "recruit" for his "revival" group (now called Alberta White Alliance) are his girlfriend Aryana and his roommate. On top of that, one anti-fa dude apparently disagreed with Dan's recruiting methods because you could see Dan walking around in January with a badly-battered face, highlighted by a blackeye the exact size and shape of human fist. Not looking so "white" now, are you Dan? Since his physical encounter of differing political opinion, Dan's taken all the offending patches off his jacket and traded in his Docs for a pair of Nikes. Guess he thinks a lower profile and some basketball shoes will help him "Just Do It" for the "white revolution." He will need Nikes when ARA-Edmonton runs him out of town for the second time!

Now!

KKKops are the real fuckups

Without much fanfare...let us introduce some of Metro's under-cover pig mugs! Well....here is the background! On October 25, 1996 the whole city of Toronto was shut down by Unions to protest against the racist, pro-rich Harris government. ARA took a unique step to highlight the presence of Ernst Zundel, a nazi-liar and guru of the hatemongers in Toronto by shutting down his bunker at 206 Carlton St. for the whole day. The day long picket was to shut down Zundel's business like the rest of the city. We planned a kosher barbecue outside his house to feed the picketers and entertain supportive neighbours.

Zundel pissed his pants and alarmed his best police buddies that ARA would use this opportunity to attack his house. The pigs obliged Zundel; it is now confirmed that Zundel was promised maximum security by high ranking police officials.

So, it was a field day for the cops. Almost 40 under-covers, with well-planned backing, swamped Zundel's bunker and surrounded it the whole day. So much protection for a fucking nazi... do they offer the same assistance to victims of nazi slime? The answer is a big no!

Here are some of these pigs... it's so hard to identify them 'cause they are so deep undercover - yeah right! This is for you political activists. Take a good look... and remember to greet them the right way next time they try to blend in at your demo! Take this as a small public service from ARA.

Settlers ON F.I.R.E., but not very bright...

ON F.I.R.E. formed in Oct. 1995, one month after the Ontario Provincial Police (OPP) murder of Stoney Point Native Dudley George. ON F.I.R.E., boasting 1300 members, mostly from North Lambton County, was organized in response to the re-occupation by the Stoney Point People – the Aazhooenaang Enjibaaig – of their traditional territory, that's Ipperwash Provincial Park and Camp Ipperwash in settler-speak.

ON F.I.R.E. is burning to spread their blaze of hate to other Ontarians and the provincial and federal governments as well as aggressively reaching out to other settler organizations and the media in order to expand the anti-Native lobby in Ontario.

On Sept. 4, 1995 Stoney Pointers peacefully re-occupied traditional territory, aka Ipperwash Provincial Park, where a Stoney Point burial ground is located. Excessive OPP build-up in response to the re-occupation, even though no Stoney Pointers were armed, resulted two days later in the shooting death of Anthony O'Brien "Dudley" George by Acting OPP Sergeant Deane.

The park has remained closed to tourists since the Stoney Point re-occupation in 1995. Settlers in ON F.I.R.E., some of whom own businesses around Ipperwash Provincial Park, seem more upset that the Stoney Pointers' return home has cut into profits from the local tourist trade than they are about Dudley's murder. In March 1996 ON F.I.R.E. presented a petition to the provincial government requesting that the Tories remove the Stoney Pointers so that the park could open for the 1996 tourist season.

What's more, in a letter to Prime Minister Chretien, ON F.I.R.E. demanded 3rd party status in government negotiations with First Nations regarding the status of the former military base and provincial park. Only a deluded sense of their own importance could make ON F.I.R.E. settlers believe that profits are more important than upholding Canadian treaties with sovereign nations.

A letter sent to the OPP by Rick Schultz, (former) president of ON F.I.R.E., requested that the OPP ask the RCMP to police the territory occupied by Stoney Pointers. When OPP officer Kenneth Deane, convicted of criminal negligence in the shooting death of Dudley George, went to court last August, ON F.I.R.E. members held a rally at the courthouse in support of Deane. Members told reporters at the court house that they regretted that the OPP hadn't shot more Natives.

ON F.I.R.E. members are paranoid about how well their own settler government will represent the ON F.I.R.E. frontier spirit. In fact, ON F.I.R.E. joined in with the OPP Officers Union to call for the resignation of Ron Irwin, Federal Minister of Indian Affairs. Why? According to Ron MacIntyre, former president of ON F.I.R.E., Irwin is not suited to his job because, "It is obvious he's an ally of the native lobbyists and doesn't represent the interests of the 97% of Canadians who don't live on reserves." ON F.I.R.E. has also found Irwin guilty of releasing documents which prove that there is a native burial site in Ipperwash Provincial Park. On top of that, Irwin won't even meet with ON F.I.R.E!

Perhaps even more revealing of the profound ignorance of settler logic is ON F.I.R.E. recruit Karen Fisher's contention that if Natives don't want to become Klanadians, they should simply leave. Well, guess what Karen... You're on Indian land! And if you don't like that, get back to where you came from, whitey!!!!

Stoney Pointers face settler "just-us"

In March and May, five Stoney Pointers have been (or will be) in the courts, facing charges stemming from the night that Dudley George was murdered by Acting OPP Sergeant Kenneth Deane (and Mike Harris and his cabinet, and Canada, and...) and from previous incidents. One Stoney Pointer, who faces some of the most serious charges, will be in court in Sarnia from May 26-30.

Glenn George, charged with two counts of assault, one of mischief and one of uttering a threat was in court in Sarnia, March 10 & 11. George's charges stem from two incidents in June 1995 in Stoney Point Territory where the military still maintained their presence in what they called Camp Ipperwash.

Military personnel placed iron "tire slashers" in a roadway leading to sacred burial grounds, prompting conflict between George and Armed Forces personnel. Capt. Allan Howse saw George removing the roadblocks and a shouting match followed with George ordering the army to "Get the fuck off our land!"

From March 24 to 27, a Stoney Point youth went to trial in Sarnia. The youth prevented the possible death of Kettle Point Band Councillor Bernard "Slippery" George when he separated OPP officers from George by driving a school bus towards the officers assaulting George. For this the youth was charged with dangerous driving and assault with a weapon!

On May 8, three charges of forcible entry were dismissed against Glenn George, David George, and Roderick George. David George is also charged with assault police and possession of a weapon (flares, which, it was revealed, were thrown by another person). David George, as well as Glenn George and the youth must wait until May 26, to hear the verdict in their cases.
